

Who's eaten the plant?

I looked outside for plants and leaves that had been eaten.
I drew them in these boxes:

|                            |
|----------------------------|
|                            |
| I think this was eaten by: |

|                            |
|----------------------------|
|                            |
| I think this was eaten by: |

|                            |
|----------------------------|
|                            |
| I think this was eaten by: |

|                            |
