

Family Learning Summer Fun

If you have spent the last few months homeschooling and are wondering what to do in the summer holidays to keep your children occupied, then look no further. Our FREE and FUN Family Learning sessions are a great way to promote development and enjoy lots of interesting activities together.

Suitable for families with children under 12 years.

Family Fun in the Sun Online

Try out a range of art, craft and exploration activities, making the most of resources you find around the home and garden.

Back to School Online

Have a go at a variety of fun and interesting activities that support children's development ready for when they start back at school after the summer.

Ready for School Online

Is your child due to start school in September? We have lots of fun ways to help support their development, ready for when they start in Reception.
